What is the application process?

- Online application information is available at Exchange Programs and Deadlines - U.S. Embassy in Algeria \(usembassy.gov\)
- Applications will be accepted in most fields of study, including the humanities, social sciences, science, technology, and engineering. However, graduate programs with a clinical studies component, such as medicine and nursing, are not permitted. Medical professionals may apply for academic degrees.
- Applications and materials must be submitted through the online system.

Applicants will be required to submit:

- Translated academic transcripts.
- An up-to-date CV or resume detailing all prior education and work experience.
- Three letters of reference, in English.
- A personal statement, in English, up to 600 words in length.
- A study/ research objective statement, in English, relating to your intended field of study or research.

Application tips:

- Write clearly using professional and understandable language.
- Demonstrate why you have chosen your field of study and how you are qualified.
- Proofread all materials for grammatical errors and spelling mistakes.
- Refrain from using sarcasm, jokes, or inappropriate humor.
- Cite any outside sources used in your essays. Plagiarism will result in disqualification.
